

2020 Coleman Memorial Park Baseball Hitting Contest

The 34th Annual Coleman Memorial Park Baseball Hitting contest was held on Saturday, 22 August 2020.

In the Adult Division, Dylan Sechrist of Lebanon won his second consecutive championship with 10 homeruns and 107 points beating out Mike Brossman of Myerstown who had 5 homeruns and 54 points. Justin Mease of Elizabethtown, finished in third place with 4 homeruns and 69 points. Cody Phillips, Jonestown finished in fourth place with 3 homeruns and 58 points.

The Legion Division was won by Wyatt Mease, Lebanon with 34 points. Colby Neal also of Lebanon was in second place with 23 points.

Dallas George of Myerstown won the Teener Division with a score of 52 points. Jordy Polanco, Lebanon, finished second with 51 points. Finishing third was Randy Polanco of Lebanon with a score of 39 points.

Colten Shaffer from Lebanon successfully defended his Youth Division title with 54 points. Second place went to Vincent Battistelli, also from Lebanon with a score of 32 points. Lebanon's Caeden Sechrist finished third with a score of 27 points, while Greyson Reynolds of Lititz held down fourth place with a score of 16 points.

Jamye Bonanno of Lewisberry won her 7th consecutive and 14th overall Women's Division title with a score of 66 points, which is a new Women's record which was first set in 2016. Nikki Brossman of Myerstown finished second with 27 points. Makayla Cawley, Lebanon, finished third with 20 points.

Mike Miller of Annville won the Senior Division title with a combined score of his age and batting points achieved with 110 points. It was Miller's 16th career Senior Division Title. Chip Hitz, Hummelstown finished second with 108 pts and Tom Morgan Sr. of Lebanon finished third with 107 points.

Profits from the event go towards maintenance of the Coleman Park ballfield and also towards the Coleman Park Trust Fund.